THE 1987 MILESTONE

Sitting in the peaceful atmosphere of the silent chapel, each with his individual thoughts,
they were bonded together by a sense of community.

The Governor Dummer Allies

President:	Mrs. Frank D'Orio, Jr.	Marblehead
Vice-President:	Mrs. Marvin Todd	Beverly
Treasurer	Mrs. Louis J. Andriotakis	Newburyport
Recording Secretary:	Mrs. Frank Goldstein	Andover
Corresponding Secretary:	Mrs. Edward Defty-Barry	Manchester
Landscaping	Mrs. Peter W. Bragdon	Byfield
Library Fund	Mrs. Robert Colgate	Byfield

The Allies' membership is made up of parents and friends of the Academy. Their goal is to make Governor Dummer Academy a better place for students, faculty and staff. Through their efforts they accomplish this goal annually.

The yearbook Board and Staff wish to express their deepest thanks to the Board and members of the Allies for their generous support in the publication of the 1987 MILESTONE.

Dedication

In the spring and early summer of 1983 a man repeatedly visited the Governor Dummer campus driving for as long as eight hours on a day to make those visits. He was Peter Wilkinson Bragdon. He was determined to know students, faculty and as many other people as he could before his appointment became official on July 1st of that year.

In the ensuing four years Mr. and Mrs. Bragdon have made every effort to know every member of the community by their attendance at meals, sports events, plays, arts performances and openings at the gallery. But more significantly, they are the first to have opened the Headmaster's refuge, The Mansion House, to anyone from the community who wishes to come on Saturday evenings. At the same time, the Bragdons have enhanced the image and standing of the school by tireless effort traveling all over the country to visit Alumni and to raise funds to improve conditions at the Academy.

For their true dedication to make
Governor Dummer Academy
the best there is,
we respectfully dedicate
The 1987 MILESTONE
to our Headmaster and
First Lady:
Peter and Dorothy Bragdon

"The only way to have a friend is to be one."
Emerson

FRIENDS

You can never know who it will be nor when it will happen nor where you will be -
not even what you did.
But mostly you'll not know
why it happened.
It may never be explained - nor does it need be
For after all, you are in fact - friends.

"Life is partly what we make it,
and partly what it is made by the friends whom we choose."
Tehyi Hskeh

As I sit quietly in the darkness I fight to hold my emotion back, but the battle is lost. My soul lets go and the floods of bitter water stream down my face. Soft quiet footsteps echo along the pathway. I sense the heat of another body next to mine. My cold bear neck suddenly feels the warmth of a beaten, but loved jacket, belonging to my friend. As I lift my sorrowed head, my eyes meet his. They shine through the dusky night seeing my misery and comforting me. He listens as I weep out my shattered feelings. He understands. He cares. A calm happy feeling washes over me. Just being there he has helped so much. The bond we share between us is precious. The bond we share is friendship.

Anne Monnelly

The thrill of victory . . .

. . . the agony of da feet!!

Friends work together in harmony (?) . . .

. . . after they come to trust one another.

Camp Brantwood didn't work out and an afternoon wasn't enough to make the difference for some.

"It is one of the blessings of old friends that you can afford to be stupid with them."
- Emerson

At the snap of my fingers, Taco, you will awake in the land of Oz.

. . . or is this the motley crew?

Outside of the buildings
On the playing fields
In front of the chapel
Up in Frost
During the day
Between classes
Inside the dining hall
Near the gym
at GDA
Friendship is here

Sam Kirkham

Friends are important to give others the comforting feeling of being wanted and accepted. Success without friends isn't success because you have no one with whom to share it.

Kurstin Burns

When attending Governor Dummer, even if you don't learn anything about science or math, you will definitely learn something about friendship and working with other people.

Stutz Plaisted

It is by a simple gesture just a friendly hello to someone you pass, a warm hug in the shining sun, or taking the time to listen and care for a friend who is hurt. It is these actions that can be witnessed at any time at GDA which fabricate our closely knit community. Friendships are valued highly at GDA and to reach out to a friend is something we find comforting and accepted. As long as you're at Governor Dummer you know you've got a friend."

ANON

For me, friends and friendships are what make GDA so special. Everyone is warm and affectionate toward one another. Because there is a small population at Governor Dummer you attain more friends and see a lot more people you know. The strongest friendships last outside of Governor Dummer. I am still friends with seven people who have graduated in the past two years. This is important because it shows that friendships at GDA really last.

Laurie Torosian

Unity is essential. When people join together and treat each other as equals, a feeling of respect results. With respect, most anything can be accomplished. People feel a sense of pride when they feel accepted, and a part of the whole, contributing to attain the common goal.

Andy Noel

Friendship is easy to come by, but very hard to keep. I mean, it's easy to be friendly and considerate, but to stay that way consistently is the true task. Anyone can be nice once in awhile, but only a true friend can be consistently loyal. A true friend is a person who will stay your buddy even when you're down and gloomy. He won't even get mad when you treat him badly. And he will always be there when you need him.

Tony D'Orazio

Friends

In your heart
Like no other
By your side
Burying hard times

Near you always
Until the end
Through the years
With a true friend

Instead of feeling sad
In addition to being happy
Throughout the times
Beside a friend.

Allison Hyder

Friends

Three boys
On the marshes
Walk with sneakers
In the grass -
Sometimes
Hopping over
A small gulley,
Landing,
Squishing in the mud.
They come to the end.
The River
Halts their move.
They stand
And talk,
Becoming closer
As they linger.
A cloudy sky,
And a breeze
Off the flat marshes
Chill the boys.
Finally,
They turn
And walk home

The Metamorphosis

As we look down deep into our hearts
And pull out our dreams —
A huge ball of hope,
A thousand flowing streams.
The past in which we've dreamed our dreams
And followed many different roads
Where we were lost and found
And discovered the chemistry of the unknowns.
With each mistake we learned
To understand just who we are
And together we were taught to reach
To the brightest, shining stars.
And we've been hurt along the way —
With friends that came to heal the pain
We learned to love, we learned to trust,
Together we fought off the hardest rains.
Within our hearts the search continues
To find our own approaching truth
To open our eyes to a bigger world
And shed the skin from our youth.
The time has come to break our bonded parts
And pull the stars down from the sky
For we know down keep in our hearts
That it is time to say goodbye.

JUNIORS

As freshmen in 1984 it didn't take long to see that the Class of 1988 was a hardworking one. We were willing to band together to get things done. As the juniors showed at the freshman closed weekend, that fact is definitely still true and now even stronger. If there's one quality that seems to prevail in the junior class, it is the close bond of friendship that everyone shares. It has become evident to see that instead of letting our large size alienate us from one another, we used it to our benefit. Newcomer Lisa Sweeny said, "I've found that the great attitude and warmth of my classmates made my new experience at Governor Dummer one I will never forget."

The juniors have shown their strength on the fields, the stage and the classroom. Lisa Sweeney was named co-MVP of fieldhockey and made the ISL All-league team. Kristen Fowler received an all-league honorable mention. Matt Caron was given an All-league honorable mention for soccer and Cabot Orton was MVP of the Cross Country Team. Mike Wells, Christina Dalessio, Steve Kim, and Martha Wise are members of the Thespian Society. Henri Shin and Kristen Fowler made the High Honor Roll and twenty-seven members of the class made Honor Roll.

But guys

We would die for physics!

I'll Huff and I'll puff . . .

Are we cute enough?

I just got into G.D.A.

No hockey today.

The juniors have quite a depth of talent and leadership, and they will have no problem assuming the senior position next year. The juniors have proved that they are one of the ablest classes to hit GDA in a long time, and that they will use their stamina and strength to lead the school.

Do I make a good clown?

Sophomores

The sophomores contribute to the community by outstanding participation in academics, athletics, the arts and in leadership. Many have said that the sophomore year doesn't count. The class of '89 is making it count and that makes the difference.

This is a year for establishing goals, discovering abilities and reaching toward one's limits. Without the anxieties of freshman year or the pressures of junior and senior years, students are free to be themselves as sophomores ... to seek their proper pace ... to determine their role at the Academy. The fact that four of the eleven High Honor Roll students (Adam Barton, Rick Fox, Scott Singer, and Young Shin) are sophomores is proof there is academic leadership in the class.

There are outstanding athletes in the class with players on every varsity team. They include Adam Barton, Nate Broehl, Troy Brown, Jen Ashare, Kristen Casazza, Don Conley, Jess Cowles, Matt Downing, Bob Foster, Mike Gorton, Greg Heath, Lisa Hernandez, Sam Kirkham, Tonya Kovach, Kevin Lydon, Alex Moody, Matt Moore, Bob Pierce, Amy Russell, Courtney Seed, and Rob Wattie. Renee Jesperson is a member of the newly formed riding group. Steve Franco has been an outstanding team manager. Many others are developing their talents at the lower levels and should contribute to the varsity level in another year.

The Fine Arts Department draws from the talents of a number of fine performers including Preston Beach, Jeff Fullerton, Lauren Jellinek, Maria Lilly, and Scott Singer. Sepp Spenlinhauer is an outstanding new Techie.

Many in the Class of '89 know the value of involvement in the school's many facets. More will volunteer their talents and efforts in the next two years. This is a great class building toward its ultimate responsibilities.

Freshmen

Lax - relax: Robyn and Dave each think it over.

Oh, the thigh bone's connected to the hip bone, the hip bone's . . .

This class is the class of the new decade - the Class of '90. We will be joined by nearly forty new sophomores in the fall. The blending of the new and the old should make '90 a worthy class to carry on old and introduce new traditions at the Academy.

The class is led academically by Gordon Randall, Shannon Davenport, Alyssa Huber and Artie Zweil. On the athletic field Matt Pascucci's fastball will worry league opponents for the next three years. Shannon Davenport's soccer prowess should become legendary. Jason Twomey has been tearing up the Oulde Newbury links. Jodi Packard has been winning her share on the tennis courts, and Marie Houghton and Jada Olson are contributing in track and field. Amy Shafmaster is one of the new breed on the Equestrian Team.

A year of adjustments is now behind the Class of '90 and we look forward to the challenges of sophomore year.

Catching rightie or leftie today, Artie?

Freshman year has left some drained by the struggle . . .

. . . and almost opened the eyes of others . . .

. . . but all in all, it's been a fun one.

Nature transforms in brilliant mirth to a wilderness of texturized flush.

When in spring it blossomed from its birth

Till fall had vanished life to dust.

Fiery glows awaken the eye

as the temperant wind shakes the leaves and whirlwind of color rises and subsides

leaving the trees unfurnished in the breeze

The strongest trees remain firm and proud as their obvious features are revealed

For Fall has come and swept the ground of natures most illustrious deal.

BACK TO SCHOOL

Summer was over and we were all back at GDA for yet another year. Some of the activities that kept us busy during the Fall included the first senior closed weekend, fall sports competitions, Fine Arts concerts, Music Guild shows, a super pep rally, and much more. As we look back on the fall, the things that will stick in our minds are not necessarily what we did, but rather with whom we did them.

"I know nothing stays the same . . ."

Running many a mile
Seems hardly worthwhile
Just for some pies
Which go right to your thighs.

Everyone wins
Coming away with some grins
And - if you don't get in
Then at least you'll be thin.

Why didn't you guys enter?

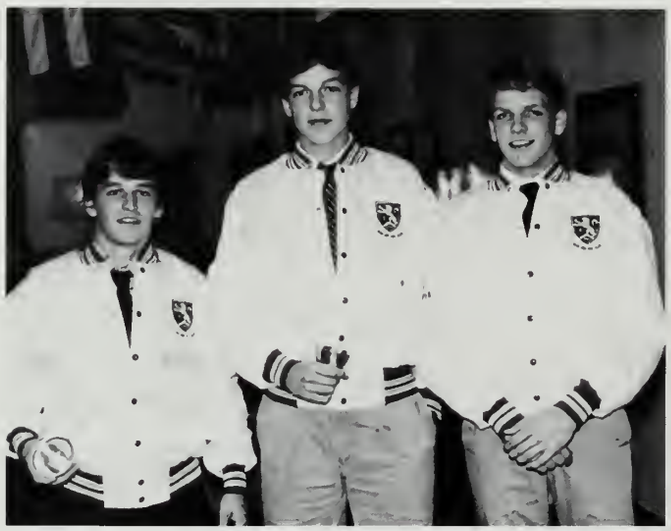
MEN'S VARSITY SOCCER

Co-Capt. D. Miller, Coach Karin, Co-Capt. R. Morse.



Co-MVP's Robb Morse and Dave Miller flank Navin's Cup winner Ben Williams.

Many words can be used to describe the 1986-87 GDA Varsity Soccer team - hardworking, tough, and sportsmanlike to name a few - but gutsy really described this team the best. They refused to give up.

Front row (l. to r.) T. Crabtree, K. Brown, B. Williams, Capt. R. Morse, Capt. D. Miller, B. Karger, J. Ashworth, M. Romboletti. Second row Mngr. A. Goldstein, M. Zraket, D. Kinzie, A. Noel, K. Lydon, J. Fosdick, J. Feldman, J. Davenport, D. Sullivan, C. DiClemente, Coach Karin. Third row J. McLoy, C. D'Orio, N. Broehl, M. Caron, A. Moody.

Highlights of the season: Brooks - a moral victory, beating Nobles, surprising St. Paul's, and crushing Belmont Hill.

There are many heroes throughout the season; Josh Davenport's game-winning goal against Nobles, Kevin Lydon's razamataz goal against Brooks, Dave Miller's inhuman saves against St. Sebastian's and Middlesex, and Nate Broehl's 40 yard scoring shot against Belmont Hill.

Captains Robb Morse and Dave Miller led the troops to the best record in 25 years. But let's not forget Matt Caron and his field trip to Karl's Sausage Kitchen. All those who watched the team throughout the season knew that the Governors, although they fell short of their goal, were always contenders for the ISL Championship.

"Oh no, it's Mr. Bill!"

"Oh, well, a little playing time and a varsity letter make it all worth while."

"It's me . . . Carl!!!"

Courage displayed by Anne Taylor in goal.

Determination exemplified by Pam Chase.

Only disappointment would soon catch up with Paula McCarthy.

In spite of injuries suffered during pre-season and early games, the girls on the team were determined not to let these adversities defeat them. Co-captain Paula McCarthy was lost for the season due to a knee injury before the first whistle had blown. Starters Heather Moore (ankle sprain) and Co-Captain Anne Taylor (pulled quad and back spasms) each missed several games. Of course there were the usual injuries that caused some lost game time for many others.

Although there was considerable time between wins - first game to last - the season did not end up on a negative note. Three ties and close games allowed the team to overcome the disappointment of a few losses.

Anne Taylor was named as the team MVP and All League First Team goalie. She was also named to the Newburyport Daily News All Star Team. Outstanding performances were turned in by sweeper Shannon Davenport and high scorer Courtney Seed, Newburyport Daily News All Star selection and All League Honorable Mention.

Seniors included: Keeper Taylor: full back Pam Chase: stopper Lisa DiIorio; half backs Jahanna Boutin, Niki Reynolds, and McCarthy; forwards Lyndsay Rowan, Jackie Hayes, and Lisa Carrigg.

The season had disappointments for individuals as well as the entire team. However, hard work and good spirit prevailed through to the final game victory against Thayer.

FIELD HOCKEY

Capt. A. Mack, Coach Letvinchuck, Capt. K. Patton.

MVP's Amy Mack and Lisa Sweeney

There was substantial improvement made this year over recent editions of varsity field hockey. This team sported a 7-2-5 record with one of the losses to a non-league team. The women finished in a strong third place in the league, up seven notches from last year's standing - the best since '75.

Each player this year played a vital role in the team's success. Outstanding goalwork by rookie keeper

"You listen, and you listen good!"

"Oops!"

Nancy Hough and Shawn Gager provided the defensive edge for the team as the two registered five shutouts and an average of one goal per game allowed. The rest of the tough defense was anchored by Co-Captain Karen Patton at center-half. Amy Mack and Kris Fowler linked the offense with the defense consistently. Lisa Hernandez, Lisa Sweeney, Anne Weitzman, and Julie Miller . . . these speedy sparks on the front line were able to push home twenty-three goals with their aggressive determination and concentration.

There is no doubt that this season was one of great satisfaction to both players and coach. Next year's team has a challenge - improve over this year.

The 1986 season started out with a great strategic win for rookie head coach, Jim Scheidegger and the Governors. Unfortunately, for the rest of the year GDA faced much bigger teams than they and our squad was simply outmuscled.

The leadership of senior captains Greg Waldman and Bill Dumoulin kept the team fighting through the frustration. Senior Coach's Award winners Mike Hart and Aaron Gartland inspired the younger players not to give up. New junior receiver Joe Bailey provided an exciting offensive spark and sophomore All-Leauge Selection Matt "Boomer" Moore and MVP Bill Dumoulin held up the defense. Senior Dave Bonenko played a key role on both sides of the line of scrimmage.

Looking ahead to next year, the Governors will be led by Co-Captain-elect David Dunwell and John Khantzian. Khantzian, this seasons' starting quarterback, is an exciting player with great scrambling ability. Receiver Kirsten Burns will also play an important role in Coach Scheidegger's second term.

MVP Cabot Orton

The Cross Country Team was led by Captain Marc Dyer, Cabot Orton, Andy Rockwell, and two four year runners - Shad Uttam and Joshua Mackay Smith. Also instrumental for success were seniors Chris Whynott, our satirical leader, and Daryl Conte, and other returning runners with whom Coach Abusamra worked. Coach Abu subjected his team to such unnusual practices as Hill Climbs on Bradford Ski "mountain", tortuous runs through the woods, speed workouts and many grueling miles of distance. The team, however, never faltered under such pressures. Our thanks to the Ginsbergs and thanks to you too, Abu.

A Special Lady

When Karen M. Licht came to Governor Dummer two years ago, we knew she was qualified to tape ankles and treat bumps and bruises. But we had no idea that with her training expertise came a kind, warm personality. Mrs. Licht's unceasingly cheerful attitude helps fight the frustration of injury. With the help of Ms. Susan Childs, Mrs. Licht has made the healing process a very positive experience.

Mrs. Licht has played a big part in the success of our teams by taking special care of all our athletes. It's arguable which school has the best sports teams in the I.S.L., but we all know that G.D.A. has the best trainer.

Winter, a test for mankind.
If ever one's endurance
was to be challenged,
winter
was designed for the deed.
Howling winds,
swirling snow, bitter cold.
When we need
each other most,
we often can barely stand the sight
of our best friend
— it must be winter term.
But there are breaks . . .
some of them heartbreaks . . .
but we move forward
together on the promises brought by January thaw and the lengthening days of February.
Mid-years are behind us,
March vacation
but a long hour away.
We will endure.
We will come through it together to face
the rains of April
and on into spring.

WINTER

Winter Events

Winter in New England seems to move at a snail's pace. However, with the snow and great activities, we kept very busy throughout this longest season.

Without a doubt, one of the most successful events was the Freshman Closed Weekend. Thanks to Miss Crowe and Mrs. Licht, The Winter Carnival provided healthy competition and lots of fun.

The "Greatest Hits" of the winter also included: dances, skating parties, music guilds, Fine Arts concerts, the play, the Headmaster's Holiday, exciting playoffs and athletic championships, and so many unheralded big and little personal events.

There is no denying, we all cheered up with the arrival of a balmy late winter day which felt like early or even late spring. Such great days gave promise and hope of the joys of spring and the renewal of life around us.

Dance

Is that the Bolshoi Ballet from Russia? The Alvin Alley Dance Company? If not, then it must be the Governor Dummer Dance Program under the instruction of Fontaine Dollas.

This year we weren't sure how successful the dance program would be after graduating many dancers along with the instructor, but, contrary to our doubts, Fontaine's dance style was inspirational to many new dancers as well as the veterans. The entire season climaxed with one of the best dance shows G.D.A. has seen. The choreography was as varied as the music; from "shell shock" to George Winston, from regimented steps to solo improvisations.

Everyone is looking forward to slipping into their leotards and tights to ple through another winter.

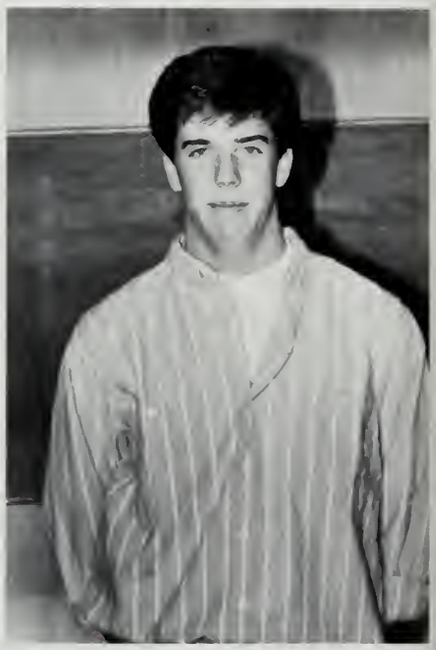
Men's Hockey

Coach Piatelli and Captain Todd Crabtree



M.V.P. Todd Crabtree

From the drop of the first puck, the 1986-87 Men's Hockey Team led by Coach Larry Piatelli and Captain Todd Crabtree proved to be an excellent team. The first big challenge was Thayer Academy, the 1986 Division I champs. Although the team did not bring home a W, it did prove to itself the players could skate with anyone in the ISL. Dave Hanlon led the team in scoring while sophomore Alex Moody in the net was the backbone of the team defense. Newcomers Martin LaCroix, Paul Bucci, and Mark Edwards added more strength to the lineup. The players pulled together as a team. Their 17-5 record illustrated that team strength. Third place in the Christmas Tournament and then a second in the New England Prep Tournament showed fine growth through the season.

Seniors Crabtree, Jon Fosdick and Jim Andriotakis will be missed next year. Chris D'Orio and Matt Caron will be co-captains for the '87-'88 campaign.

Front Row: A. Moody, J. Fosdick, D. Bonenko, T. Crabtree, J. Andriotakis, B. Bronson, A. Noel. Middle Row: Coach Karin, M. Caron, K. Lydon, P. Bucci, D. Sullivan, W. Belleau, M. Murphy, Coach Piatelli. Back Row: M. Wallem, M. Edwards, C. D'Orio, M. Lacroix, D. Hanlon, D. Walor.

Crabtree (#15) moves in on defense.

Some pre-game support — by all.

Goalie Alex Moody makes another of over 500 saves.

Women's Hockey

Co-captains Mack and Rowan with Coach Bromley

This season, only the third of the women's ice hockey program, was fantastic. A strong varsity squad of seventeen players was backed by a J.V. team of more than twenty. Enthusiasm for women's ice hockey was high. Everyone — players, coaches, and fans alike — gave genuine support to the new teams.

The team was invited to join the new Independent School League for women's hockey and Coach Lynda Bromley readily accepted. The girls knew that this meant facing much stronger, more experienced teams than they were used to playing. Coach Bromley and assistant coach, senior Mike Hart, set out to get the girls in shape for the season. At The Holderness School Christmas Tournament the team placed third. The rest of the season went along smoothly as the girls met very tough competition. Despite some defeats and upsetting ties, the players were always upbeat and striving to do their best. Next year's team should be even more successful given their talent and experience. Seniors Leslie Miller, Leslie Sevilla, Paula McCarthy, Anne Taylor, and captains Amy Mack ('86-'87) and Lyndsay Rowan ('87) will be sorely missed. Captains elect, Heidi Danielson and Julie Miller with Coach Bromley will bring the team right along. The best of luck goes to both women's Ice Hockey teams in the years to come.

Volleyball

Coach Letvinchuk, Captain Kristen LaBrie.

This year's volleyball team has had a tough act to follow. With only five returning varsity players, it seemed that it would be a rebuilding year. Much to their surprise and after a lot of hard work, the team walked away with the league championship.

Captain Kristen LaBrie, four year varsity veteran and MVP for this year, kept the team's spirits high even after a disappointing loss to Milton which broke a thirty-eight game win streak.

To bounce back after the Milton loss to finish the league schedule without another loss attests to the character of the team. Under the guidance of Coach Levinchuk this group defeated B-B&N in two sets for the first time in three years.

The players returned from the tournament without the trophy, but proud of the effort and success they had had for the year since they are The Champions.

Men's Basketball

Coach Metz, Co-Captains John Khantzian, Ben Williams, Chris Dobrosielski.

MVP Troy Brown (Missing MVP Bob Pierce)

You can chalk up another banner for men's basketball. The team this year was a beautiful combination of youthful intensity and experienced wisdom. Veterans and enthusiastic newcomers made possible the tremendous success in winning the ISL and the New England Class C Prep Tournament. With a game on the line, veterans Bob Foster, Troy Brown and John Khantzian came through in the clutch. Newcomers Carlos Perez, Jason McCloy, and Bob Peirce could always be counted on for the needed spark. Senior reserves Cris Dobrosielski, Dave Miller and Ben Williams responsded like true champions whenever Coach Metz called on them in particular pressure situations. Chris Whynott and Joe Baily gave the team that valuable depth which brings home a championship.

Looking at the team's impressive 18-3 record, one would think the season was a breeze. However, as head coach Steve Metz put it, "When you're the best, everybody guns for you. That was the position our team was in." Coach Metz brought a diverse group of individuals together and molded them into a well blended team of believers. No one person could take all the credit for such a fine season, but without the coach's patience and determination, the team would have fallen short of it's goals. In spite of graduating four seniors this year, next year's edition for the Governors will once again be a dominant force in the league.

Enthusiasm from the bench was a mark of this team.

Women's Basketball

Coach Johnson and Captain Chase

The varsity woman's basketball team's first victory didn't come until game three. This win against a talented Lawrence team ignited a strong desire for a winning season.

Seven returning players were joined by five new girls with super talent. Among the new players were Kris Fowler and Tonya Kovac, who led the team in shooting and rebounding. Kris, this year's MVP and All-League player, was a dazzling addition and source of high team spirit. Captain Pam Chase inspired the team through her constant hustle and experience.

The chemistry between the old and new students and second year coach Kristen Johnson was obviously present. Difficulties arose when we competed against teams about our equal in talent. We just could not hit the lay-ups or the foulshots which cost us games.

The ISL coaches voted GDA's women's basketball team to be the one to watch next year. With determination, the team could make that forecast more than speculation. Good luck next year to the team of '88 in your pursuit of the league championship.

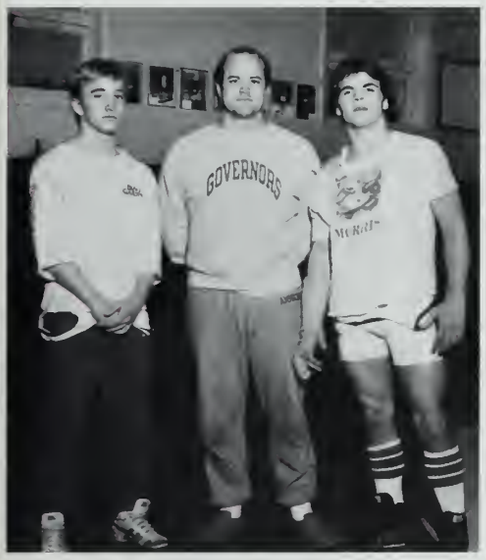
Wrestling



Co-Captains Tim Carmichael and Greg Waldman with Coach James Schidegger.

This was a great year for GDA's Wrestling Team. Last year's 3 - 9 record was turned around to 8 - 4. The loss of only four seniors suggests improvement again for next year. It was also a year for outstanding individual achievement. During the dual meet season Tim Carmichael recorded six pins, Matt Moore brought five, and Greg Waldman was undefeated in dual meets for the second straight year. At the Graves - Kelsey Tournament Mike Wells placed fifth, Reggie Edmonds took a second, Jon Morisseau and Carmichael were champions and Waldman repeated for his second consecutive championship. Carmichael also received the Tournament Most Outstanding Wrestler Award. GDA finished fifth as a team and placed more wrestlers in the finals than any other team.

GDA fared less successfully in the highly competitive All New England Tournament with only Morisseau and Carmichael both finishing second. However, the Governors finished a most satisfying sixth against this great competition. At season's end, Morisseau, Carmichael, and Waldman were chosen to the Daily News' All Area Team — the first ever GDA wrestlers to receive this honor. Carmichael was voted also the Boston Globe's All Scholastic Wrestler of the Year. This season was easily the most successful one in several years for the grapplers. With Mr. Scheidegger and Mr. Finn coaching, and with the leadership of Captain-elect John Morisseau, next year should be an exciting one for the team and its fans.

Nordic Skiing

MVPs Amy Russell and Cabot Orton

1987 was a landmark year for the G.D.A. ski team. After what seemed to be an eternity without snow, Byfield was blessed from above with a gift that had been long awaited. The white stuff fell ceaselessly, and soon the ski team was back in action on the hot I.S.L. racing circuit. Liberated from barren, brown terrain, the group banded together under the guidance of coach Alec White to master the rare art of Nordic Skiing. Faced with the awesome power of steadfast ski giants like Middlesex and Belmont Hill, the team struggled to improve their skills, gaining new confidence and new friendships all the while.

Team Captains Jenn Griffin and Cabot Orton worked with the new ranks, who rose to the challenge and became talented skiers in a drastically short period of time. Veterans such as Joe Danahy, Tim Pouch, and Kendra Haynes remained figureheads of team spirit and duty. Two other bright stars on the team, Amy Russel and Sepp Spenlinhauer, helped to assert the overall strength of the team. Much of the team's success was the result of Coach White's tireless devotion to improvement and cooperation.

Although 1987 was a true learning year for the ski team, its real strength became evident as the friendships progressed and the team began to enjoy learning together. No matter what the record showed, the ski team proved that there is more to a team than conquest in the field. In the end, it was victory of the spirit that prevailed.

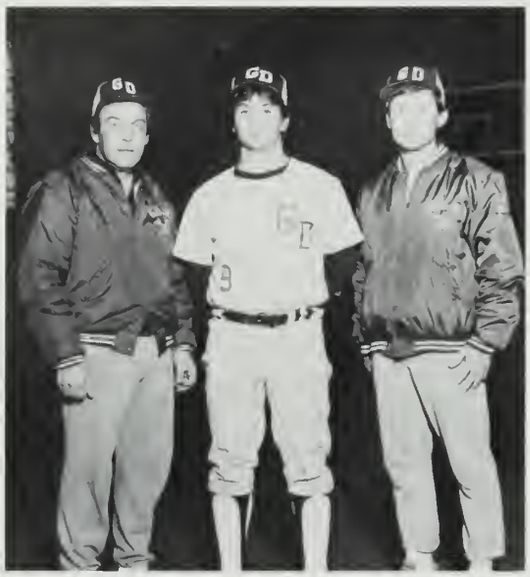
The Encounter

Through the rain and snow
We waited,
Anxiously . . .
When our foe we met,
For pride
We fought
Gallantly.
In victory and defeat,
We held our heads high,
For we had shown
what we are made of.

Spring Sports

Baseball



Capt. Rob Delena with Coaches Moonves and Metz

MVP Rob Delena, with Coaches' Award winner Bill Dumoulin.

Anticipation for a great season marked the outset of the spring of 1987. A spring training trip to Florida put the players in a great frame of mind. However, April "showers" brought postponements and cancellations. In spite of the delays, the team started the season with four straight wins.

A blast over BB&N's center fielder by John Khantzian brought home the tying and winning runs in the last inning. Good pitching by rookie Matt Pascucci and timely hitting by Captain Rob DeLena submerged Rivers. The offense remained strong throughout most of the season but occasional lapses in defense and pitching opened the door for too many runs. Rob Wattie and Joe Bailey enhanced this good pitching staff and with this year's experience under their belts it should be even stronger next year. The bats and determination of the left side of the field, third baseman Rob Delena, shortstop Greg Waldman, and sensational leftfielder Robb Morse, will be missed next year. Take - charge - guy, catcher Bill Dumoulin, will be tough to replace. Also graduating are outfielders Jeff Ashworth and Mark Romboletti, hurler Russ Graceffa, explosive DH Mike Hart, and crafty basecoach Peter Barton. Fortunately returning veterans include slick fielding first baseman Andy Noel, sparky second baseman Jay McCloy and slugging centerfielder John Khantzian.

However, the season was a frustrating and disappointing one for the Governors. After beating Saint Sebastians, the league leading team, in an emotional upset, wins were tough to come by with losses in four of the last six ballgames. The players have expressed their disappointment in not being able to present coaches Moonves and Metz with a league title.

Men's Lacrosse

Captains Williams and Katz with coaches Anderson and Shea.

MVP Ben Williams

GDA Lacrosse was coming off a less than satisfying '86 season, but Coach Shea and Coach Anderson were very optimistic about the coming season. The two coaches stressed good physical condition and stick skills. When he discovered how quick and aggressive his players were, Mr. Shea began setting his sights high.

The Governors finished a solid 4-4 in the ISL. This included a thrilling come - from - behind win at Nobles, and a disappointing loss to Brooks.

Though the team was comprised of mostly juniors, a number of seniors contributed greatly. Co-captains Jeff Katz and Ben Williams (MVP) gave fine leadership and play on the field, and strong support from the sidelines. Coaches' Award winner, Andy Rockwell, was a solid midfielder, while Taylor Twining and Dave Bonenko added to the team with their strong stick skills. Backboning the defense was Aaron Gartland, bringing speed and size to an otherwise young fullback line.

Looking ahead to next year, a powerful group will return. Explosive forwards Moody, Lydon, and Kim will be in every goalie's nightmares, along with Tony and Dan.

Women's Lacrosse

Tri-capts. McCarthy, DiIorio, and Armstrong, Coach Ruhl.

MVP Anne Weitzman.

Women's lacrosse did not have one of their best years by the record, yet our spirit never broke. Under Coach Ruhl, and lead by Tri-captains Paula McCarthy, Lucy Armstrong, and Lisa DiIorio, we learned to turn our frustrations into energy to do our best.

There were many changes this season which the team developed through unity and hard work. A zone defense took shape with first year goalie Cindy Draper and defensive players Petica Barry, Kate McLaughlin, Julie Miller, Anne Weitzman, Heidi Danielson, and Jahnna Boutin. This worked well with the offensive strategies carried out by the Tri-captains as well as Kara Moheban, Christina Dalessio, Michelle LaFlamme, Heather Knapp, Kim McDonald, and Erika Sayewich.

The best times were not just victories on the scoreboards but the times we did our best and were together on or off the field. The swim at the bridge, the St. Mark's locker room, the Brooks game, and the Lawrence MASSACRE are all times we will remember together. They are times we were together and laughed or cried and those times are what made our team NO. 1 no matter what the records say.

MVP David Miller

The 1987 GDA Men's Track team was somewhat of a surprise. The guys finished just one game below .500 in a very strong league.

Mr. Sperry's weight crew, captained by Mike Zraket, was beaten only once this season. Coach Abu had his distance runners in prime shape from the start. Mr. Rybicki's efforts brought around a young group of jumpers and sprinters, which improved greatly as the season progressed.

One cannot talk about this track team without mentioning the incredible accomplishments of co-captain David Miller. In just his second track season, Miller was undefeated and New England champion in the 800 m. He was also champion in the ISL in the 800 m. 1500 m, and the 3000 m. Along with the team MVP award, and the Gilbert Distance Running Trophy, David was named to the Boston Globe All-Scholastic Team.

The Governors will sorely miss the leadership and talent of co-captains Miller and Zraket and the rest of the seniors. Fortunately co-captain Dunwell is returning to lead a hopeful '88 team.

MVP L. Sweeney

Talent and positive attitudes characterized this women's track team. The girls' inability to give up propelled them to another outstanding season.

Although the team was small, the girls managed to capture second place in the New England Championships, falling just five points short of the winners, St. Paul's.

Outstanding individual efforts were present in every meet. Lisa Hernandez topped off her strong long jumping season by becoming New England champion. Incredible hurdler, Lisa Sweeney, dominated the league and brought back two New England titles: the 100 and 300 meter hurdles. Anita Russo and Amy Russell led the distance runners while Anne Taylor held up the weight crew.

Coach Letvinchuk gives much of the credit for this successful season to co-captains Anita Russo and Amy Mack. Their leadership and enthusiasm made the team a close group of friends.

Next year, the team will be led by captain-elect, Heather Moore. A talented group of girls will return — GOOD LUCK!!!

Horseback Riding

The Dawn Of A New Breed

In its first year, the riding program got off to a great start. All the participants learned a tremendous amount and excelled in competition. Amy Shafmaster and Kristina Von Trapp both qualified to compete at Madison Square Garden next year. Elizabeth Leary rose to championship heights in side-saddle competition. Renee Jesperson is looking forward to further success with her new horse . . . Jenny Reynolds improved in showing through sheer determination.

Each girl met her goals this year and is looking forward to next season.

Men's Tennis

Coach Rowe and Captian Chris D'orio.

MVP David Naumann

Oh Rowe! Well this year's mens' varsity tennis team had a rainy start. With only two days of practice, they headed off to face Groton and came home with a defeat. Nevertheless, they did not give up. They tied their sneakers and tightened their racquet strings and ventured down to the cracked Farmhouse courts where they practiced long and hard under the stern supervision of coach Wally Rowe and captain Chris D'Orio. As a result of this endless determination they proved to be victorious against such teams as Rivers, Middlesex, St. Sebastians, and Roxbury Latin. The team was lead by #1 singles player, John Blau, #2 player, Chris O'Orio, and MVP straight from Texas, Dave Nauman. However, the team was not complete without the erratic playing from senior John Roach, or that special STING from 3 year letter winner Doug Wezniak, or that calm and uncomplaining attitude of David Hanlon, and of course the loyalty from young Matt Downing and Mike Gorton.

(L to R): Coach Rowe, D. Wezniak, D. Naumann, C. D'Orio, J. Blau, M. Gorton, D. Hanlon, M. Downing.

Women's Tennis

Captain Patton and Coach Childs.

MVP Jackie Hayes

The GDA Women's Varsity tennis team had trouble winning, but that didn't matter, they had fun anyway. New coach, Mrs. Childs, pushed the girls to work hard, but not to worry about winning or losing.

Senior captain, Karen Patton, and Junior, Deana Giamette found tough competition in the number one and two positions for the singles team. No one will forget #3 Kim Lawson's shutout loss to a nationally ranked player from Nobles — the two set match took less than 30 minutes! Julie Donat, Jill Packard, and Jackie Hayes finished out the singles line - up, and had pretty good individual records. Jackie, who lost only once all season, was named the team's Most Valuable Player.

For Doubles matches, Coach Childs made her top 4 singles players two teams and put Jodi Packard and Mary Beth Childs together for the third group. Unfortunately, the doubles had an even harder time winning than the singles did. Just the same, they had fun.

(L to R): Coach Childs, J. Hayes, K. Lawson, J. Donat, K. Patton, Jodi Packard, M Childs, Jill Packard, D. Giamette.

Captains Burgess & Sullivan accept MVP award for team.

The 1987 GDA golf team was very young, led by two junior captains, J.B. Burgess and Jim Sullivan. Although there were no senior golfers, the team faired pretty well, finishing 3-2-1 in the ISL and 3-4-1 overall.

Freshman Jason Twomey and junior Arvid Swanson had the tough task of playing number one and two. Junior Dave Walor, Jim Sullivan and J.B. Burgess were very strong 3,4,5 golfers this year. The team played a great third round in The Witherspoon Cup to end the competition with Exeter and Andover in a three-way tie at 1539 strokes for each team. With all the Gov's victories this year coming by one point, every member played a key roll. Thus, Coach McDonnell gave the MVP award to the entire team.

The future looks bright for our golf team as they will go into the '88 season with the same line up.

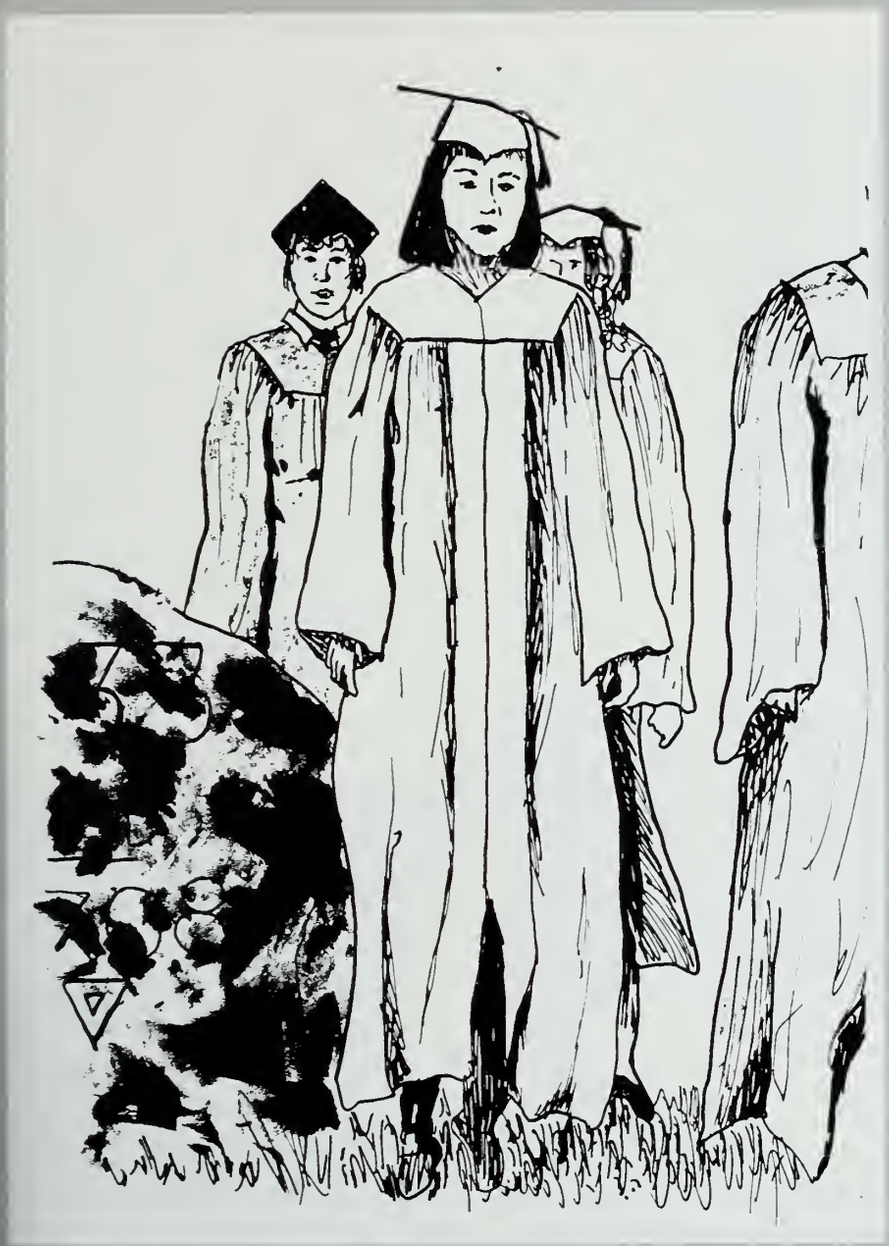
Good Night!



It frightens me to think of being shoved
Away from those whom I have always loved.

Sometimes I want to have the things they have
But then again I must remember that
The reason is, for them, the love I have,
And when I'm down I know I do have that.

Some friends of mine do things that don't look good,
But what my judge should see is that I don't Make friends because we share some traits, he should,
But then, of course, most probably he won't.

Why can't he see the difference between
My actions made and his predictions of Incriminating moves; from what he's seen he should surmise that what I feel is love.

COMMENCEMENT

Two Hundred and Twenty-fourth
Commencement
of
Governor Dummer Academy

The following comments were taken from remarks by the Headmaster and members of the faculty.

The Morse Flag

The Morse Flag was first awarded seventy-four years ago at the 150th Commencement of this school on June 9, 1913, and it has been awarded each year since that time to the senior whose record in all respects has met with the highest approval of the faculty. According to the trust established by the late Rev. Glen Tilley Morse, a long-time friend and trustee of the academy, a new flag is provided each year in order that the old flag which has flown over the school during the past year may be given to a member of the graduating class.

She might be the embodiment of what we try to be at the Academy. Her gracious manner almost cloaks her immense and constant determination. Her accomplishments reveal the depth of her determination. A high honor student, she has enrolled in four honors courses - been chosen by the Cum Laude Society. She has been a Day-Student Representative of the Community Council and a Co-Chairperson of the Red Key. She is Advertising Manager of the Milestone. Her constant service has earned her membership in the academy's Honor Society. Brilliant in the arts, she is accomplished on the violin and fluid in dance, the choreographer of Smith and Company. Her accomplishments do not stop there. A great athlete, she has excelled as a runner in cross-country, placing seventh in the New England Championship meet, and in track took third in the New Englands in the 800-meter run, setting a new school record in this event. On her own time she is an accomplished skier. All this is accomplished with a graciousness which touches all in her presence. Words seem inadequate when trying to honor the achievements and the manner of this year's winner of the Morse Flag.

ANITA ELISE RUSSO

THE ACADEMY PRIZE

Upon the retirement of Headmaster Ted Eames in 1959, the underclassmen of the Academy endowed the already existing Academy Prize so that henceforth at each commencement it could be given "in honor of Edward W. and Eleanor K. Eames so that the qualities they so deeply prized might be prized in turn by future and succeeding classes."

"Give it your best shot." The force with which he pronounces these words and his willingness to practice this message in all aspects of his life provide a powerful statement to the Academy community. The message was there when he arrived four years ago and led his class as he struggled in his studies. The message was there when he took on the seemingly insurmountable task of being a varsity basketball player at an academy which regularly wins New England Championships. The message was there when he was a community service volunteer at the Harbor School directing the athletic program there.

Although he may not ever dunk the ball, he did make the varsity basketball team; he was tri-captain of a New England Champion team and in one memorable stretch of two swing minutes in a swing game stole the ball twice, assisted on two baskets and then sunk a shot of his own before returning to the bench.

In high moments and low moments, he always summoned the courage to be positive. A struggling student his ninth grade year, he made Honor Roll at midyears of his senior year. In a sermon to the Academy, he asked us to give our best. He has done just that during his journey through the Academy. He has honored the Eames Family, honored the Academy, he has honored his late father and his family by his attitude, his accomplishments and his message.

PETER CRIS DOBROSIELSKI

The Thorndike Hilton Cup

The Thorndike Hilton Cup, established by the Class of 1919, is awarded to the ranking scholar in the Senior Class.

The education of each of us is not a competitive enterprise ... Learning — the mastery of detail; the acquaintance with concepts; the spirit of inquiry; and the critical awareness of self, society, and the cosmos — rather, should be cherished as the fulfillment of human development ... the faculty of Governor Dummer honors the intellectual growth and academic achievements of all its students in making this award.

He has the awesome distinction of High Honors for sixteen consecutive quarters and ranking scholar in the Class of 1987 in each of its four years. Such an accomplishment, no doubt, represents the harmonious blessing of talent, tenacity and curiousity. That such magnificent potential comes wrapped in the ambition to be a missionary doctor gives hope to all who teach.

Not as wages of victory in competition but as an emblem for the scholarship to which we hope all students aspire the Thorndike Hilton Cup is awarded to

PETER GEOFFREY HAMPDEN BARTON

Special Prizes

A fine photographer, a spirited and fearless athlete, a member of the Honor Society, a counselor last summer celebrated for his accomplishments, and above all a decent genuine friend with a personality which makes a difference.

JAMES LOUIS ANDRIOTAKIS

She is so refreshing: she can laugh at herself and laugh with others. Wherever she committed her vitality — academic accomplishment, as a Head Tour Guide, tennis, basketball, serving her church — she did it with a flair. She inspires all of us.

JULIE DONAT

Poised in her preparation for class, poised in her four years of varsity tennis, at centerhalf on our resurgent field hockey team, amidst the pressure of the Discipline Committee, as one of the Editors of The Governor, poised and able in all she does.

KAREN ADELE PATTON

She has diveristy and tenacity. She is a scholar with a spine. So many of this year's activites were organized by her or affected by her. She is a striking artist with athletic success. A real gem.

LINSAY ELIZABETH ROWAN

Sincere, sensitive, talented and extremely motivated to learn, he won the Bausch and Lomb Medal as a top notch science student. He has been Editor-in-Chief of The 1987 Milestone. A truly fine athlete, he refused selection on an All-Star team when a truly outstanding teammate was overlooked. No comment of a few words can adequately capture the integrity and the variety of pursuits of

DONALD ROBERT MORSE

His poise and graciousness masks the determination which made him a champion wrestler and aggressive student. His service as proctor, a big brother, and a member of Red Key is consistent with genuine respect he shows to all.

TIMOTHY DOUGLAS CARMICHAEL

His quiet courage and unassailable integrity guided him as he guided the Academy. One of the finest baseball players to ever attend the Academy, he became a strong student with the same spine which made him such a superb president of the student body.

ROBERT CRANE DELENA

A kaleidiscope of talent and a kaleidescope of interests marked this Class President, author, actress and able student. She appeared on teams, managing teams, in dramatic productions, in Community Service, on the Community Council and wherever critical thinking and talent were needed.

LISA ANN CARRIGG

MOODY KENT PRIZES

The Moody Kent Prizes are given annually to those students throughout the school, graduating senior or underclassmen, for outstanding achievement in the various academic departments. No more than one may be awarded to the same student.

For English: Beneath her quietude, she glows with intelligence, warmth and sensitivity to language . . . although in class she has "only the most valuable things to say," . . . in composition, "she writes with her head, but also from the heart."

LUCY ARMSTRONG

He has a strong mathematical mind, is very inquisitive and is not satisfied until he reaches a conclusion for every problem.

MARC GEORGE DYER

An outstanding scholar of history, intellectually mature, and a logical and analytical thinker, she is also a young woman of decided opinions who is sensitive and perceptive of world issues.

LISA ANNE DIIORIO

To the uninitiated, brilliant academic achievement is acquired solely by Nature's roll of the dice. However, the combined forces of Nurture and self-determination are also considerable factors. . . . brilliance, motivation, and hard work have produced a four-year average in science of 17.1 — a little better than a "straight A."

PETER GEOFFREY HAMPDEN BARTON

For Religion: She is gifted in her attentiveness to the power of words and silence. Sympathetic in her listening and articulate in her questioning and perceiving, she has been a delight to teach, a delight from whom to learn.

JACQUELINE ELISE HAYES

This musician has worked somewhat quietly behind the scene and has steadily maintained the intellectual and artistic intensity necessary to earn the highest grades. An extremely clever student with a keen wit and methodical approach, he brings music to our ears and a smile to our faces — whether on piano, or in voice, or on the Kurzweil, or on the computer.

SHAWN CHRISTOPHER REEVES

This fourth-year honors student has demonstrated strong proficiency in the study of the French language. She has developed a great appreciation of French literature and shown keen insights into literary problems.

SUSAN KAY BRACKBILL

This senior has been top scholar in Spanish for four years. He has displayed an extraordinary dedication and ability in the study of literature and the writing of Spanish. His interests and enthusiasm have enriched his fourth-year class.

DONALD ROBERT MORSE

She has displayed dedication and strong ability in the study of German language and literature. She has added humor, spirit, and enthusiasm to language classes.

KAREN BARBARA KAGAN

He has displayed a sincere interest in the classics and exemplary natural talents in translation and comprehension of Latin.

JOHN BRADLEY BRENNAN

An ideal art student with temendous growth and exemplary scholarship. She works hard for herself and for her school as demonstrated in the gallery and on the Frost Ice Rink.

LINDSAY ELIZABETH ROWAN

Murphy Athlete

The Anne Marie Murphy Athletic Award is awarded annually to that senior girl who, by her example and her achievement in athletics, has brought greatest honor to her school during the past year.

A ferocious competitor in field hockey, reknown for her rink-length dashes in ice hockey and fierce determination on the track, the recipient of the Anne Marie Murphy Athletic Award has been an exciting and dynamic presence in the scarlet red of the Academy. She embodies the determination of the Governor Dummer Academy athlete.

AMY FITGERALD MACK

Goodwin Athlete

The Goodwin Athletic Prize is given to the senior who, by his athletic achievement and sportsmanship, has brought the greatest honor to his school during the past year.

An acrobat in the nets of a fine soccer team, a catalyst on the championship basketball team, and a natural and successful runner, the recipient of this year's Goodwin Athletic Prize always performed with both determination and joy. At all time he performed with the grace which is central to a Governor Dummer Academy athlete.

DAVID RAYMOND MILLER

The Cumings Prize

Awarded annually to a student who has shown perseverance, hard work, and good spirit in contributing to the welfare of the school.

One of her teachers commented, "Her willingness to be vulnerable when expressing her feeling about sensitive topics has been refreshing." Refreshing is the word: She understand the joys and sacrifices of giving to others and revealed this understanding when taking a difficult academic selection, competing in varsity sports, and serving in activities ranging from Red Key to The Milestone.

PAMALA LEE CHASE

French Trophy

The Peter Marshall French Memorial Trophy is awarded to that student whose perseverance, sportsmanship and generous spirit on the playing field, regardless of distinction as an athlete, represent the highest standards of participation.

During her four years of involvement in field hockey, volleyball and lacrosse, the final two years on the varsity level, her actions and her manner have been totally dedicated to her team. She is the embodiment of modesty.

LUCY ARMSTRONG

Ambrose Speaking Prizes

Is it integrity? modesty? optimism? cheerfulness? success? caring for others? daring to be thoughtful? Yes, she is loved by all for these attributes and more?

ANITA ELISE RUSSO

We have a greater understanding of ourselves and our times because she speaks openheartedly. She is a cautious optimist who makes the best use of her time.

JULIE DONAT

We must admire the person who is aware of his circumstances, takes advantage of them and when necessary creates his own circumstances.

JOHN ANDREW BLAU

THE BARRISKILL PRIZE

For outstanding contribution in the field of music. From Bach to Beethoven, from Joplin to Gershwin, he has performed it all. His maturation as a musician has been a joy and wonder to behold and we will all treasure the memories of his wonderful performances from Byfield to Russia.

The recipient of the Gaffney Prize honors Robert Gaffney at every juncture. Whether playing the piano or asking about the welfare of a friend, from his first day on the campus he has revealed a genuine concern for people of all ages.

JOHN BRADLEY BRENNAN

THE MERCER ART AWARD

The recipient of the Mercer Art Prize is a model for this award. She has received honor grades in every available art course. Her curiosity leads her to explore many approaches and mediums. She won an honorable mention in the Boston Globe Competition. Her spring term project brightens the north wall of Thompson Auditorium.

JENNIFER JARRETT TODD

THE THESPIAN AWARD

When Shakespeare described Cleopatra as possessing "infinite variety", he might have been describing the recipient of this award. Her growth as an actress, set builder, editor, assitant director and director of this spring's play mirrors the growth of our theater in these areas. She leaves our stage — but leaves it richer.

JENNIFER LYNN KILLION

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION AWARD

A replica of the brass key to the Red Schoolhouse is presented to the recipient who has shown community spirit and concern within the Academy during his senior year demonstrating qualities of awareness of others.

GLEN J. DISTEFANO

THE WILKIE SERVICE AWARD

Dedicated, loyal, courageous, genuine — this young man spent four terms at the Anna Jaques Hospital in the Medical Records Department and Emergency Room before immersing himself in a Spring Term Project at the North Shore Shelter for the Homeless.

His gentle and compassionate nature, his keen understanding of some of life's unhappier realities and his determination to "make a difference" have gained him the admiration and respect of his peers and also of those with whom he has worked.

RICHARD RONALD McNABB

GDA ALLIES ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Earned respect for their personal qualities of helpfulness, integrity and perseverance as well as for sound moral character.

CATHERINE MacLACHLAN, BOBBY FOSTER

WHITTEMORE AWARD

Given to that sophomore who be his attitude and perserverance has made the best contribution to the Academy . . . He is a great contributor on the athletic field, in the classroom and in extracurricular activities.

NATHAN GERALD BROEHL

Underclassmen Awards

INGHAM FUND SCHOLARSHIP

To help an industrious and able student through the school . . . a conscientious and reliable student who has set high goals . . .

MICHELLE R. LaFLAMME

FRANCIS SCHOLARSHIP

To a helpful student of high character . . . in the classroom, on the athletic field and in activities he brings excellence.

ANDREW B. NOEL, III

COLMAN SCHOLARSHIP

Awarded to an undergraduate who has shown proficiency in the study of languages.

ANNE LAWRENCE COLE

HALE SCHOLARSHIP

Has shown most improvement in various aspects of school life and an esteemed contributor to the well-being of the school.

PATRICK W. COLGATE

EDITOR'S NOTE

How many words is this picture worth?

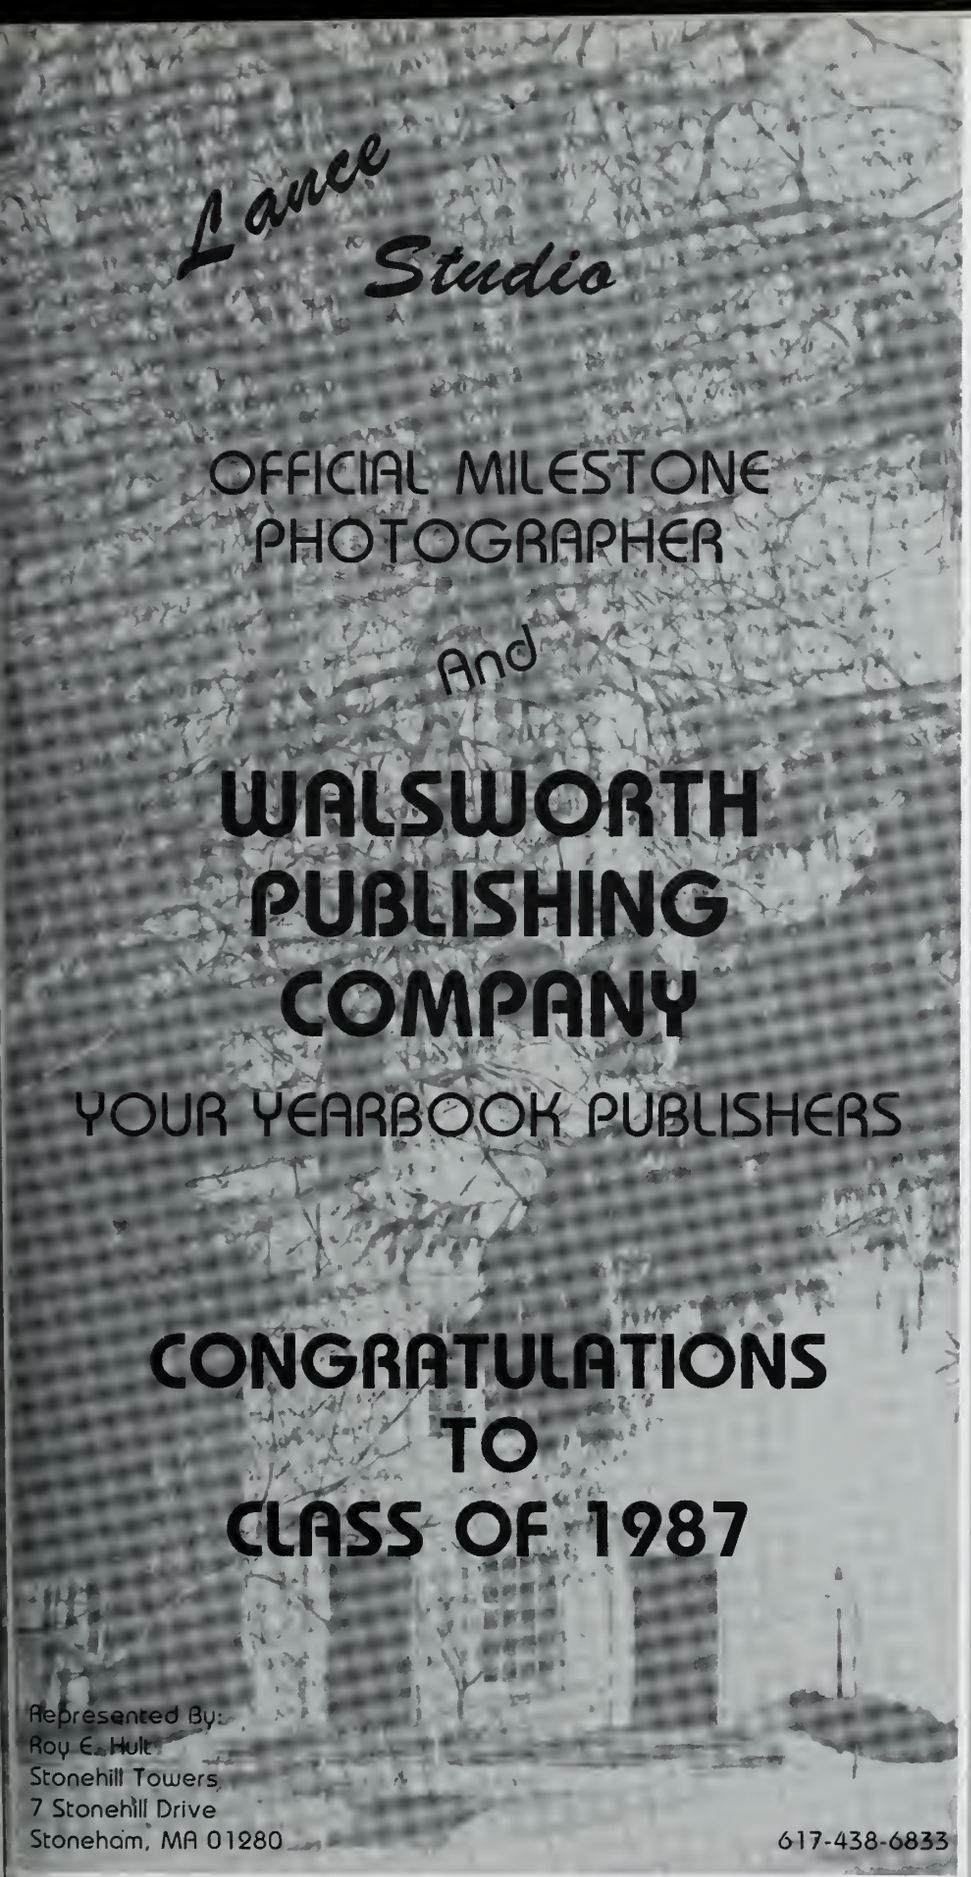
Class of '87,

I remember somebody telling me, "Anything worthwhile always takes a struggle." I can tell you right now that finishing the 1987 Milestone was a major struggle. But it won't be a worthwhile accomplishment unless you all enjoy the book. So, let's all assume that not only is the old saying true, but its converse is true as well: Anything that takes a struggle is always worthwhile. This way we all have to enjoy the yearbook, and all our time was well spent. I honestly believe that Mr. Miller, the staff, and I have done the best we could.

I want to thank you all for making the past four years such memorable ones, and I wish you the best of luck, wherever 'life after GDA' takes you!

D Robb Morse



May I take this opportunity to sincerely thank you, the Class of 1987, for being so cooperative in helping me achieve my goal in the photography and publishing of your 1987 MILESTONE.

In all the years I have been associated with Governor Dummer Academy, I consider you, the Class of 1987, one of the greatest.

Thank You,
Roy E. Hult

This Bridge

This bridge will only take you halfway there
To those mysterious lands you long to see:
Through gypsy camps and swirling Arab fairs
And moonlit woods where unicorns run free.
So come and walk a while with me and share
The twisting trails and wondrous worlds I've known.
But this bridge will only take you halfway there-
The last few steps you'll have to take alone.

Even though they are from the Mud Slingers Group, they have found it.

In a recent poll many seniors were asked if they had found happiness at GDA. Some were willing to express themselves quite openly and here are partial results.

All the monkeys aren't in the zoo . . . went ape this year.

Jolly right.

Qui, moi?

Let me pass a few pensive moments on that one.

I'm just a country girl 1

2 OK, so he's a clown.

A bouncing boy. 3

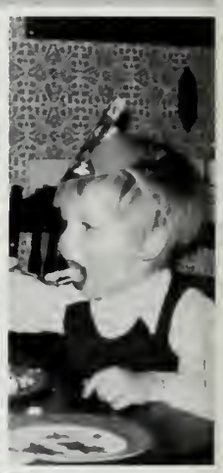
4 I'm just a little sister.

I think I'll dye my hair. 5

6 So, I like suspenders.

MIAQT? 7

8 Next year I get skates.



9 Yum, yum!

I'm so sweet - now. 10

11 I like your style, Mom.

I'm a go getter! 12

13 I'll always be handsome.

THE GREAT FACE RACE

Mr. Miller's physics test were a piece of cake compared to this one. Keep at it.

Win before the 5th Reunion of the class of '87. If not, answers will be given at that time.

If you are the first in your class to put in the hands of The GDA Allies through Mrs. Bragdon the ID for each of the eighteen (18) cuties shown on this page, you will recieve a pizza from the pizza joint nearest you.

So am I - and will be. 14

Where did they get the tree? 15

16 Are you a musician?

We're sooo cute! 17

18 My feet are cold.
